Voter Registration

You may register to vote if you are:

- *A citizen of the United States
- *At least 18 years of age
- *A resident of Oregon for at least 20 days before the election

If you are a new resident in Oregon, you may register up to the 21st day before an election.

If you are already registered in Oregon, you can update your registration with a change of name and/or address up to the date of the election. However, ORS 247.203 allows changing your political affiliation only up to the 21st day before a primary election.

Forms for registration are available at most banks, public schools, libraries, post offices, Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) and also at the Secretary of State's website:
